

14
August 24, 1661.

THe Vice-Chancellour and Major, Respectively, in his Majesties name, doe streightly charge and command, all Inhabitants, commorant or being, in the Vniversity, City, precincts & suburbs of Oxford, as well Priviledged Per- sons as others, that they carry not out into the adjacent High-wayes or Fields, neere unto the laid Univerfity or City, and leave the fame uncovered, any the Carcasses of Dead Horses, Hugges, Dogges or the like, but that they carefully sink fuch Carcasses into the ground at a competent depth, & then cover them with earth, that neither the Aire maybe corrupted, or Passengers juftly offended with the ftench of them. And if any Person fhall be found Delinquent herein, he fhall for every fuch default Forfeit, & Pay Five Shillings, One Shilling thereof to the Party informing and the other Four, to the ufe of the Poor of that Parish, prefently to be diftributed in Bread at the difcretion of the Overfeers, where fuch Delinquent liveth.

Richard Baylie Vice-Chan. Oxon.

Sampfon White Major.